profile info

I am a junior web developer who previously worked in modern languages and translation.
While working as a translator, I discovered my passion for the dynamic world of programming languages. To pursue this interest, I enrolled in a 12-month Full Stack Web Development bootcamp at DCI. Through this course, I am gaining practical experience and knowledge working with a variety of technologies, such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Node.js, ExpressJS, and MongoDB.

Cover Letter

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Front-End Developer position at the Content Technologies Team at BurdaForward.

With my enthusiasm and motivation for web development, I am confident that I can contribute to the team's efforts in building an extensible and modular publishing platform/framework.

Currently enrolled in a one-year Web Development Vocational Training program, I am gaining a solid foundation in both Frontend and Backend development.
I am proficient in several frontend technologies, including Javascript ES6, React Tailwind CSS, SCSS, SASS, and Bootstrap.
Lastly, I am experienced with version control using Git and comfortable collaborating with other developers on GitHub, package managers like NPM, and have knowledge of writing web applications and APIs with Node.js and frameworks like Express.

I am passionate about creating clean and responsive user interfaces while applying the latest web design and development trends.

Moreover, I am committed to continuous learning and staying up-to-date with the latest advancements in web development. I am particularly interested in expanding my knowledge and expertise in three.js, as it aligns with my keen interest in creating interactive and visually appealing web experiences.

As a team player, I am eager to collaborate and contribute my ideas to help improve the product and achieve team goals. I am fluent in English and have proficiency in German, Spanish, and Italian, which allows me to effectively communicate with diverse teams and clients.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further and contribute to the team's efforts.
Sincerely,

Sincerely,
M.Filardi
